Honors American Literature and Composition

Welcome to Honors American Literature and Composition!

Listed below is your summer reading list. You must have all selections read and the written work submitted on Google Classroom by the due dates listed below. You will be given an objective and an essay test on these selections during the first week of school. All these books are issued to you like a textbook for which you are responsible.

Black Boy (Part One only) by Richard Wright June 26

Farewell to Arms by Ernest Hemingway July 10

The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald August 7

The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck August 29

You must turn in answers to the Reading Log questions for each selection on the Google Classroom page for “Honors American Literature Summer Assignments-2022.” The classroom code to join the page is hphnb2w. Do your own work for this assignment and do not rely on or use any literary notes like Spark Notes or another outside source, including the Internet.

I am looking forward to working together next year! Don't put off this work but enjoy a fun-filled and relaxing summer break!
