Kudos To...

- senior Adriana Parella (left) who will be honored at the YWCA Young Women with Bright Futures banquet on Saturday, April 6 at the Holiday Inn in Boardman, Ohio. Established in 1994, the awards program provides an opportunity for community recognition of outstanding young women who are high school seniors. Honorees are selected by their high school administrators based on leadership qualities, creative talents, the pursuit of academic excellence, and volunteer service. In honor of her award, Adriana collected hygiene items from the school community to donate to the YWCA.

-junior Caroline Sekola (right) and the Burke School of Irish Dance dancers for their recent performances with the Youngstown Symphony Orchestra, Mahoning Valley Saint Patrick’s Day Parade, WYTV and WFMJ, and a variety of other local spots for the Saint Patrick’s Day Holiday. Ursuline’s French teacher, Mrs. Lisa Devlin, is the president of the Irish Dance School and spends countless volunteer hours coordinating the efforts.

-four members of the Ursuline High School Marching and Concert Bands for their excellent showing at the recent District 5 Solo and Ensemble Contest held at Warren G. Harding High School. The students performed solos in one of three difficulty classifications, with Class A being the most difficult. All four of our participants earned the highest rating of a 1 (superior) for their performance. Congratulations to Rocco Shasho ’20 (trumpet), Ian Jones ’21 (snare drum), Alexander Watson ’21 (tuba), and Christian Perez ’21 (saxophone.) Special “thank you” to Joel Kreuzweiser who provided outstanding piano accompaniment for Alexander.

-freshman Joseph Carlini, sophomore Luke Martinucci, junior Cooper Muccio, and senior Joel Kreuzweiser (right) who played piano for the Home and School Association Reverse Raffle. The pianists provided music during the dinner and program. The Ursuline Home and School thanks these young gentlemen for their willingness to share their talents with our school family.
